UNCLAIMED FUNDS LIST TO APPEAR IN TUESDAY'S NORWALK REFLECTOR

Division Wants to Reunite You with Your Forgotten Money

Ohio Department of Commerce Director Andre T. Porter urges Huron County residents to join in the 2014 Unclaimed Funds Treasure Hunt by checking the Norwalk Reflector on Tuesday, June 17. By checking the newspaper advertisement, readers can find out if they are entitled to unclaimed funds turned over to the Ohio Division of Unclaimed Funds in the past year.

Unclaimed funds are money or the rights to money that have been dormant or forgotten. Some common examples include: dormant checking and savings accounts, forgotten rent and utility deposits, uncashed checks, undelivered stock certificates, and uncashed insurance policies.

“The Department of Commerce Division of Unclaimed Funds is committed to reuniting Ohioans with their hard-earned money. Check the Huron County list to see if you, your family or your friends have unclaimed funds,” said Director Porter. “This money can help Ohioans buy a tank of gas, pay off some bills, make a needed home repair or even expand a business which means jobs for Ohioans.”

In Fiscal Year 2013, the Division paid 53,580 claims worth approximately $69.2 million. The average claim was for $1,292.

The Huron County advertisement will include 630 unclaimed funds accounts worth $263,154.29. The advertised accounts, each valued at $50 or more, were turned over to the Division within the past year for individuals whose last known address was in Huron County. The advertised names will appear in alphabetical order by the owner's last known city and then in alphabetical order by the owner's last name. A list of unclaimed funds accounts is available on the Department of Commerce's Online Treasure Hunt website at www.unclaimedfundstreasurehunt.ohio.gov along with forms for individuals and organizations to use in claiming their money.
